

7 Learning Zones Every Classroom Must Have

By Veronica Lopez

www.treetopsecret.com

The 7 Learning Zones system establishes routines, saves you time, and keeps you sane from the first through the last days of school.

Arts & Crafts Materials      Games      Puzzles
Cameras      Manipulatives      Recorders
Fun Books & Magazines      Music Makers

Display examples, provide a central focus, record observations, and use the data.

Assignments      Holidays      Upcoming Celeb.
Calendars      School Events      Weather
Community News      Temperature      World News

Display learning target, class-work, prompts, and homework. Allow students to post their news.

Clipboards      Hole Punchers      Pencils      Sharpeners      Tissue
Glue      Paper      Pens      Spirals      Trash Can Hand Sanitizer      Paper Clips      Rulers      Staplers
Highlighters      Paper Towels      Scissors      Tape

Share reference materials, create a hub for student work, and provide a lost and found box.

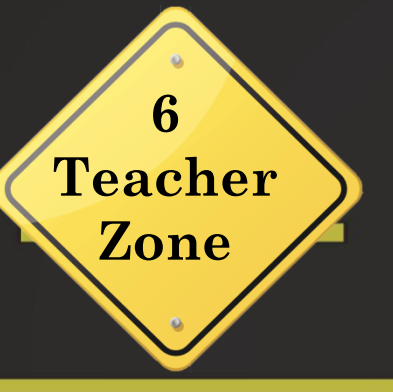

Ask Questions      Listen      Share
Connect      Present      Work Together
Discuss      Reflect

Evaluate progress, clarify, correct misconceptions, take notes, and plan ahead. Empower students to lead.

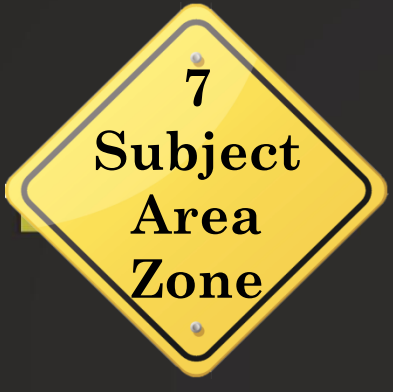

Independent time      Reflecting      Writing
Make-up work      Studying
Reading      Testing

Define the zone with a spare table and chairs. Make the zone as "library-quiet" as possible.

Certificates      Manuals      Photos
Confidential records      Mementos      References
Degrees      Personal items

Define this professional space to work with learners and adult visitors.

Anchor Charts      Manipulatives      Print Materials
Flashcards      Notes      Resources
Games      People in the field      Timelines

Provide examples and resources for connecting subjects. Add visuals and provide context for vocabulary terms.